

Date: 3 April 2014

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE IN COMPETITIVE MANUFACTURING

Training specifically tailored to meet your needs

Why Choose Training In Supply?

We know how critical managing productivity is on a day to day basis and we ensure that your staff understand the relevance of competitive manufacturing principles to the success of your business. Training In Supply will customise the training to meet your specific needs. This course is designed to identify specific areas of improvement and provide the tools and mentoring resource to lift the performance of your business.

Course Benefits

- Individual distributor improvement opportunity identification
- Structured programme for future staff development`
- A common business language
- Obtain a nationally-recognised qualification
- 40 NZQA - registered unit standards
- Class, tool and mentored support to make improvements. For example:
 - Health and safety compliance
 - Communication tools and understanding others
 - Reduction in time waste
 - Looking for items
 - Waiting for work
 - Reduction in re-work
 - Stream lining of processes
 - Improved communication
 - Better goal setting
 - Setting KPIs
 - Ongoing improvement via KPI management
 - Better staff involvement
 - Managing change
 - Understanding business costs
 - Managing process flows effectively
 - Understanding customer requirements in more detail
 - Adding more value to processes and to the business
 - Personal improvement - personal goal setting and management

Programme Delivery

- A two hours per week group session for 12 weeks
- An individual Skype / phone mentoring session every two months (if required)

For more information or to make a booking you can email us at info@traininginsupply.com or give Keith a call on 0-27-278 7759