

Competitive Manufacturing Training Scheme (Level 2)

Training In Supply (TIS) has been granted approval by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) under Section 251 of the Education Act 1989 to provide the “Competitive Manufacturing Training Scheme (Level 2)”. This Training Scheme is currently only available from Training In Supply.

The aim of this training is to introduce the concepts around applying Competitive Manufacturing (CM) practices; and to introduce the concepts of Just in Time (JIT) manufacturing and to demonstrate the many functions within manufacturing and how they interact and affect other functions.

The Training Scheme will be delivered in three x two hour training sessions, one month apart, on client work sites addressing the theory aspects of the programme. These will be followed by a final fourth session to summarise trainees’ progress and their achievements. In the intervening three periods (each of one month) trainees will:

- complete the questions in the assessment material (theory worksheets);
- attach supporting documents as described in the worksheets that explain the tools they used to improve jobs or processes;
- complete practical assessment tasks; and
- obtain verification from their team leader(s)

Two CM unit standards will be addressed and are intended to encourage participants to progress to the National Certificate in Competitive Manufacturing (Level 2) as career development in a range of manufacturing industries.

A training scheme is defined in section 159 of the Education Act 1989 as study and training that leads to an award but does not, of itself, lead to a qualification listed on the New Zealand Qualifications Framework (NZQF). A training scheme can be at any NZQF level and can provide a range of academic or vocational learning opportunities.
